

Office of Assistant Treasurer U. S.,

Philadelphia, Pa., December 6, 1889.

O. C. Bobyschell, Esq.,
Superintendent of Mint-U.S.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I am sorry to appear over particular, but having looked somewhat carefully into the matter in the case of the appointment of Mr. Hickok by Hon. D. M. Fox, your immediate predecessor, I must respectfully request that you follow the precedent then established and submit the appointment of Mr. M. H. Cobb as "Acting Superintendent of the Mint" to the Director of the Mint for approval, as in all like cases in the other Departments of the Public service under similar statutory provisions.

Respectfully yours,

Wm. A. Steep
Asst. Treasurer U.S.
